The Indictment of AbyssusDraconem

12/06/2020 Disclaimer:

This document is old.

Please note that I am 100% confident in my findings and confident in the fact that AbyssusDraconem is a threat to clanning despite him claiming some things on this document are disputed. I can defend everything on here.

Regardless, form your own judgements, allow room for conversation if need be but don't be unreasonable when approaching this individual.

Special thanks to RogueRebel, LordLancer, wh0sjordan, wh0sadam, Aviatrus and Rathuzen for helping with this document.

The following message is addressed to the clan community as a whole regarding an individual named AbyssusDraconem and his many offenses against the community as some people are still out of the loop. This document was made to raise awareness and put the final nail in his coffin for all the harm he has done to the community.

Chapter 1: Profile

Before we delve into what this individual has done, allow me to give you a little insight on who he is and his involvement in the clan community.

AbyssusDraconem is the leader of "The Mortem Coalition" on ROBLOX and supposedly a former VAK General previously known as UmbrellaCorporatio (according to himself). In recent years he's also led Sphere of Justice, a coalition comprised of Prime Legion, Chronim, The Dark Warriors, his own clan TMC and then Sphere of Sovereignty, a coalition comprised of VANQUISH, Frosted Flare Empire and his own clan. He currently runs the Clan Nexus Discord.

I wouldn't usually bring up someone's personality and attributes in a document like this one, but it's very relevant to this situation as it explains why he acts like a complete asswipe. Abyssus may seem very open/friendly to many at first, but he has a gift for manipulating people. Upon further inspection, few of us found out that he is a self-proclaimed psychopath and sociopath, not that people with those disorders are inherently bad but it explains why he acts so deceitfully.

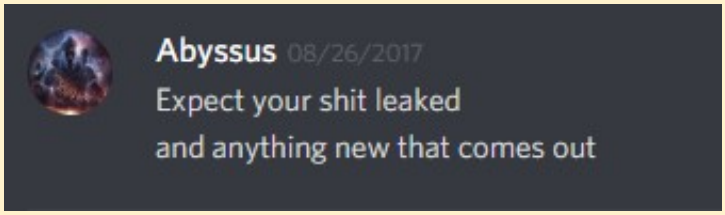
I've killed before
And I don't regret it.
I hunted down and committed first degree murder 3 times
And I openly admit that.

Chapter 2: Place Leaking

In late 2017, Abyssus established a rivalry with one of my clan's allies, Ariona led by sIoww/Edmund. He disliked the group because they refused to exile his ex-girlfriend. Following this, he decided to threaten me/Chronim, asking us to unally Ariona else he'd leak our places. I ignored him and eventually received this:



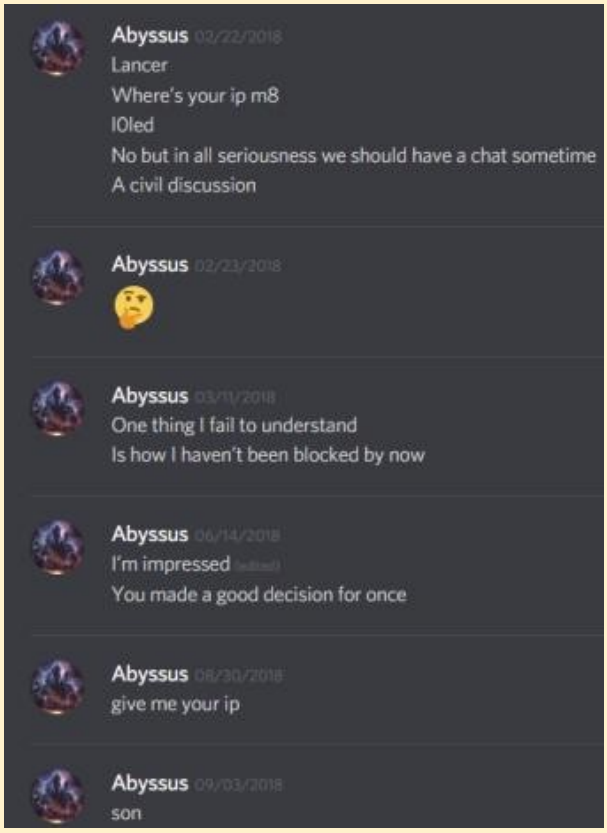
Abyssus eventually got banned from the first SCC Discord fronted by Gbronzed, LordLancer, Lametta, XxZONExXx, un_holy and myself at the time for the threats he'd made to both Ariona & Chronim, and due to the fact he'd threatened to ddos Eminemrocks93. Eventually, he attempted to appeal his ban by starting a group voice chat with all the members of the Council. Needless to say if you know Abyssus well enough, it went south very fast.

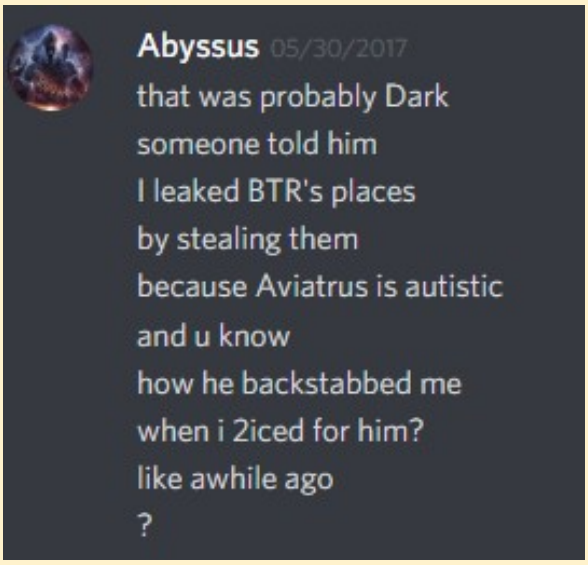
Since at the time he hadn't done anything too extreme, we offered him a second chance if he promised he wouldn't threaten/attack people anymore, to which he responded that "he couldn't promise that he was not going to ddos us". After several minutes of Gbronzed and I laughing our asses off hysterically in the voice call, we ended the conversation and kept him banned. His feelings got hurt pretty bad.

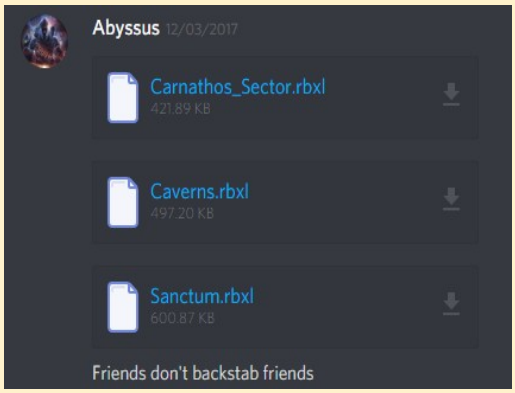
In retaliation, he leaked places from some of the councilor's groups: Elder Blades' places, Chronim's places and Prime Legion's places like he did with BTR led by Aviatrus in 2016/2017 by dumping them in the SCC Discord. He also continued harassing LordLancer in DMs.

An archived forum written by LordLancer last year which gained support from the community: https://archive.froast.io/forum/228368694

4:08 PM Abyssus If you think the only kind of relevance there is stems from leadership you'd be incorrect
Abyssus Or like my mass leakage and exposure of multiple SCC Council members
Abyssus Which I should point out got me blacklisted
Abyssus From not only the SCC
Abyssus But C&G Council itself
Abyssus My name was thrown around and all clans were advised to blacklist me
Abyssus Which honestly backfired on the SCC's part

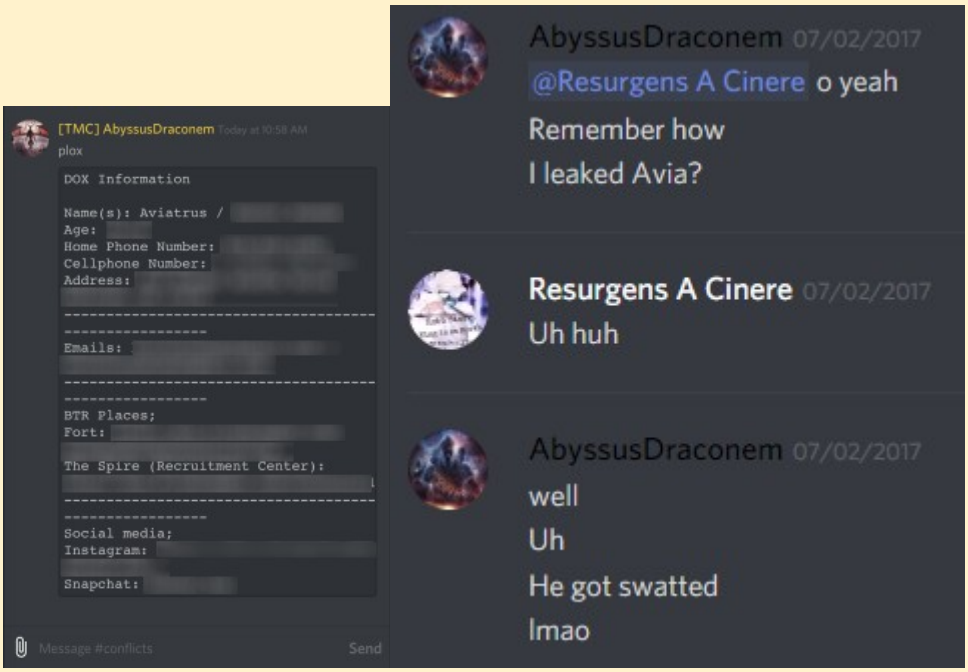






Chapter 3: Leaking Private Information

It's a known fact that Aviatrus/Hunter and AbyssusDraconem have had a sour relationship for years; Abyssus was his second in command in BTR until they had a falling out. We've already established that he leaked their places and supposedly AA'ed/Exploited a bunch of their events after leaving the group; but there was worse.



In the pictures shown above, Abyssus leaks a full dox of Aviatrus in the Clan Discord and confirms it in TMC (his clan)'s discord.

An archived forum where Aviatrus predicts Abyssus doxxing him with Avexic/TwoChemist's help:

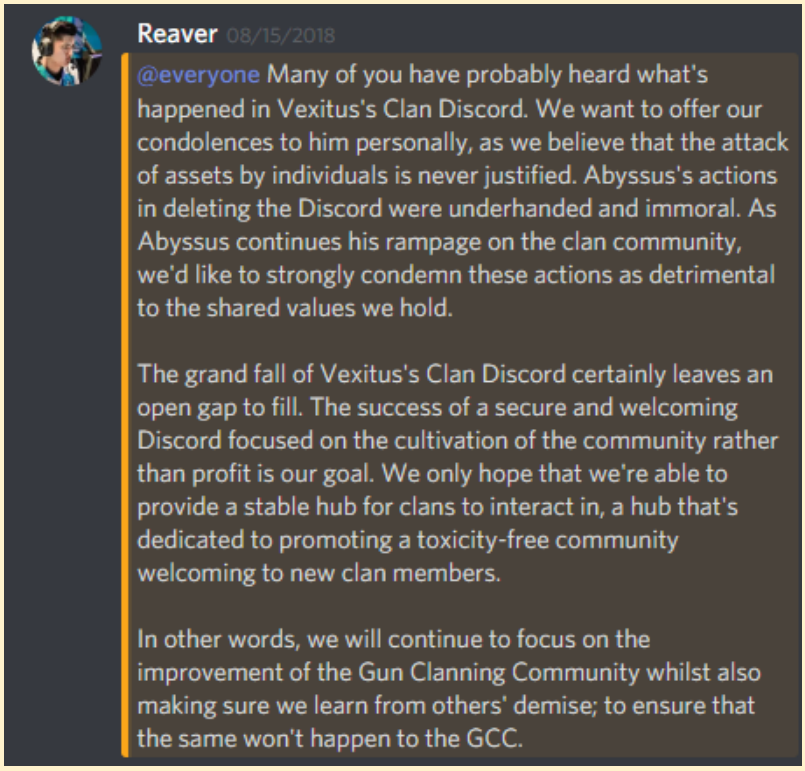
Chapter 4: Admin Abuse/Clan Nexus



Reaver 08/15/2018
@everyone Many of you have probably heard what's happened in Vexitus's Clan Discord. We want to offer our condolences to him personally, as we believe that the attack of assets by individuals is never justified. Abyssus's actions in deleting the Discord were underhanded and immoral. As Abyssus continues his rampage on the clan community, we'd like to strongly condemn these actions as detrimental to the shared values we hold.
The grand fall of Vexitus's Clan Discord certainly leaves an open gap to fill. The success of a secure and welcoming Discord focused on the cultivation of the community rather than profit is our goal. We only hope that we're able to provide a stable hub for clans to interact in, a hub that's dedicated to promoting a toxicity-free community welcoming to new clan members.
In other words, we will continue to focus on the improvement of the Gun Clanning Community whilst also making sure we learn from others' demise; to ensure that the same won't happen to the GCC.

This one certainly did not go unnoticed; Abyssus and Vexitus somehow came to some kind of agreement for either of them to hold the Clan Discord and it ended up with it being AA'ed by Abyssus 2 months ago. Here's a video of Abyssus/Vexitus' DMs, it's quite a read but it could interest you:

https://youtu.be/HQ3fs0QuAV4

He proceeded to mass DM people to join his own community discord, “Clan Community Nexus”. He regularly uses this platform to attack his rivals and spread misinformation, often streaming over twitch. Yesterday (10/07/18) he attempted to get the Gun Clan Community to shout out his stream, who didn’t know it contained the following:

```
What should our first episode of the video series be on? Current options:
(1) Vaktovian Deterioration
(2) Clan Theory: Where We've Been & Where We Are Going
(3) The Fall of the SCC (featuring an SCC Council member or multiple if I can get any in a call without them thinking I can magically dox over Discord)
(4) GRP: What Happened? Where It Went Wrong? (featuring the original owner of GRP and the ClanAtlas account)
(5) Auzric, The Death of Chronim, & The Corrupt Influence He Has Wrought (he was invited to participate but as will be presented, he was very insistent that having a civil conversation is not possible as he is unwilling)
(6) 3 and 5 together
(7) 1 and 2 together
(8) The History of Abyssus in Clans & Why He Is Often Held To Be Malicious
(9) Other

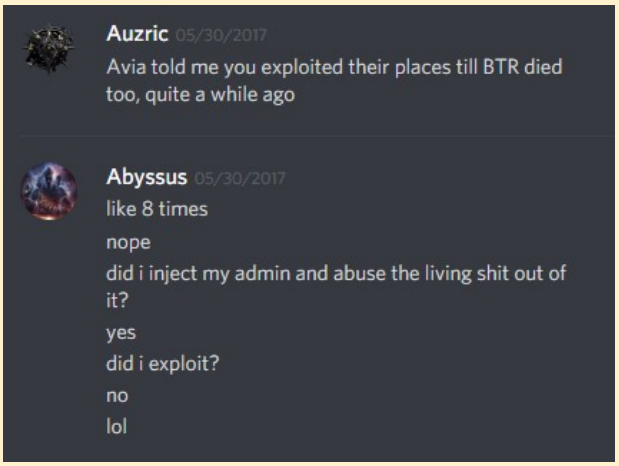
Not only did he attempt to use the GCC to spread bullshit about the SCC, one of its affiliates, he also attempted to spread lies about himself in an attempt to quiet down people who were accusing him of doing malicious things. He also called my clan dead which hurt my feelings a lot. /e sarcasm

Since the stream never got shouted, Abyssus sent people to the GCC to spread the link against the staff’s will.

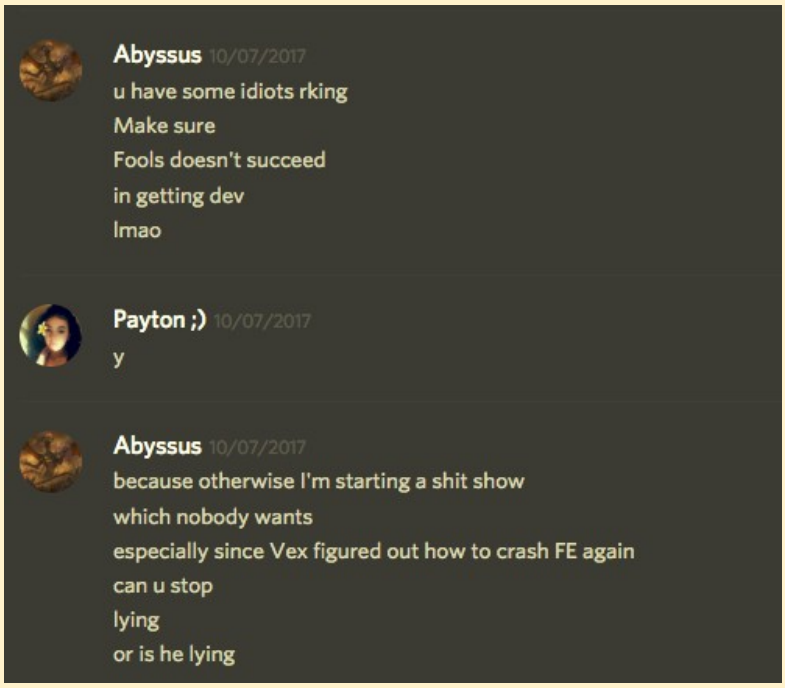
Chapter 5: Exploiting/DDoS’ing

There have been many rumors concerning Abyssus and his tendencies to exploit/ddos his enemies’ events. As you know, it can be hard to prove that a person is exploiting, so I’ll let you make up your own minds/ask people he’s attacked for some more input.

First of all, Abyssus was accused of exploiting BTR’s events. This cannot be proven so easily, but what is certain is that he did attack group events by injecting his own admin scripts into their games.



Auzric 05/30/2017
Avia told me you exploited their places till BTR died too, quite a while ago
Abyssus 05/30/2017
like 8 times
nope
did i inject my admin and abuse the living shit out of it?
yes
did i exploit?
no
lol



Abyssus 10/07/2017
u have some idiots rking
Make sure
Fools doesn't succeed
in getting dev
lmao Payton ;) 10/07/2017
y
Abyssus 10/07/2017
because otherwise I'm starting a shit show which nobody wants especially since Vex figured out how to crash FE again can u stop lying or is he lying

Abyssus 12/17/2017
Your dickhead HR Zeus banned me
Because he tried to force me to respect him
After calling me a pedophile and saying he had proof
He clearly doesn't have
So you can either unban me and deal with it
Or I can leak builds ¯_(ツ)_/¯
Idrc
I don't respect people like that and I'm not tolerant of it
You handle it or I will
Payton ;) 12/17/2017
You can leak whatever you want
Abyssus 12/17/2017
You sure?
Payton ;) 12/17/2017
Anyone can steal a copy of anything
yes
Abyssus 12/17/2017

Vex is iLordVex, his 2ic/Scripter. Supposedly he does a lot of Abyssus' dirty work such as place stealing/crashing games.

Again, what I'm about to tell you cannot be proven due to the lack of evidence but I've also had my own issues with Abyssus attacking my facilities as many others may tell you. After him and I stopped talking, he'd occasionally attempt to attend my events, resulting in him being instantly banned. Following this, he'd send one of his friends to shutdown the games and attempting to justify it by telling us "we weren't listening to him as he requested". As if he were anyone of importance.

Conclusion

To finally conclude on this document, Abyssus and his associates are dangerous to the common clanner in the sense that they are willing to harm anyone in any way possible to get what they want remorselessly, as the past has proven. He doxxes, he leaks places, he exploits to shutdown events, he harasses people and is overall the biggest detriment to the community at this time, right up there with Zharus, EmperorRyzoft, EmperorRektus and more.

He continues to run on strategies of blackmail, extortion and many other deceitful methods to this day, so here's what I am suggesting to all major clan discords:

1) Permanently ban Abyssus' alts/main from your servers.

Abyssus#0001, Auzric's Feet#3218, Lone Wolf#8400.

(I forgot the others, but he has around 6-7 Discord alts I've known of)

2) Shout this notice in your server's announcements.

3) Avoid any contact with AbyssusDraconem/Block him if he contacts you.

DISCLAIMER:

I know there may be many skeptics out there wondering if this individual is really what I've made him out to be; I do not encourage talking to him, but if you don't believe some of the accusations talk to him/the people affected by his actions.
